RWS222

F and Eleventh Streets

This Solid Oak BED-ROOM SUITE is $11.50, but it's really worth $16in fact, 'twould be good value at this last price. Has carved top and beveled plate mirror. Well made and finished with splendid drawer

-It's worth seeing if only for its cheapness.

I want to be the jeweler who

ARE YOU WORRIED

> about a Wedding present?don't know what to give, yet have to give something.

Quickly settle the debate by looking over my exquisite stock of gold and silver articles - wonderful variety prices moderate, too.

Don't hesitate to come, even if you are not ready to purchase just now. My store is like a miniature exposition, for visitors come and go when they please and buy when they like. I want them to.

When you come ask to be shown the

C. H. DAVISON

Jeweler, 1105 F ST. N. W.

Drop

us a postal and we will a wagon right away for your "wash." Your linen will look like new when we return it. We know just how to get it up right. No broken buttonholes.

Tolman STEAM LAUNDRY. 5th and C Sts. N. W.

So many reasons why the electric light is superior to gas light. Safer, more convenient, cleaner and easiest artificial light there is on the eye-sight. Electricity is rapidly side-tracking steam as a motive power. We furnish the power-will turn it on when you'r ready. United States Electric Lighting Co., 213 14th st. u. w. 'Phone 77.

-----Gas light is a better light than electricity if it's burned through a Siemens - Lungren Gas Lamp. And it sheds a beautiful white light, making it excellent for show windows and store interiors. Rented for 25c. a month. Gas Appliance Exchange, 1425 N. Y. Ave.

t tickles the palate and tones up the system-Pure Berkeley Rye.

JAS THARP. Importer of Wines and Liquors, HE P Street Northwest.

Departmental League Game The game to-day between the Treasury and Commissioners teams at National Park will be brimful of interest, as the "Moneyhandlers" have bopes of gaining the secondplace in the Departmental League series, which position would be assured if they should win the game. The batteries while Nichals and Farred for the Treasury, and Fuffer and Dickension for the Commissioners. The pame will be called at 4.30 p.m., and ladies are admitted free.

National Ribbs Armory, 920 G st. nw.,

Katisani Rifles' Armory, 920 G st. nw. Tuesday, September 24, 8 p. m., Mr. Eugene M. Camp, of Harper Brothers, will lecture on "Making of a Modern Magazine." Stereoptions views and exhibition of literary curios ties, including original manuscripts of Trilby and many other famous works. Entire proceeds to building fund of industrial school for houseless boys of Eastern cities. Chairman Mr. G. A. Tracy. Tickets 25 cents, at Waller's Family at Marseillos. Marseillos, Sept. 20.—The family of J. Waller, ex-United States Consul at Madagascar, now undergoing a term of twenty years impresement in Clarvoix prison, arrived there to day from Mauritus

ITALIANS' LIBERTY DAY

Societa Fratellanza Celebrates Emanuel's Entry into Ro me.

BARON FAVA THEIR GUEST

Many Other Distinguished Men Pres ent-President Whitman, of Columbian, Made a Speech Which Aroused Great Enthusiasm-Ladies Graced the Occasion.

The sons and daughters of sunny Italy celebrated in appropriate manner yester day and last night in this city the twenty fifth anniversary of Italian unity. In the morning there was a parade and a review atthe Italian embassy, where anoration was was delivered by Mr. Joseph Verdi and a response to the sentiment of the day by Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador, all of which was reported in full in The Even-

Last night the celebration was concluded Last night the celebration was concluded with a grand banquet, which was served at Freand's. There were about two hundred at the tables. The hall was brilliantly illuminated and decorated for the occasion, there being an elaborate display of the wers and banners. The conspicuous wall decorations were the flag of trally, the United States banner and the flag of the Unione e Fratellanza Italiana. Besides the general decorations of flowers there were baskets and wreaths disposed along the tables.

GUESTS OF HONOR.

The cuests of honor were Baron Fava.

GUESTS OF HONOR.

The guests of honor were Baron Fava, President Whitman, of the Columbian University; Prof. Fava, of the University; Prof. Charles E. Murro, deacon of the Cororan scientific school of that university, and representatives of the Garibaidi Bociety of this city, the Italian Society Unione e Fratellanza of Baltimore, the Cristoforo Colombo Society of Baltimore, the Cristoforo Colombo Society of Baltimore, and of the Croce Bianca and the Stella d'Italia newspapers. A very pleasing feature of the scene

Bianca and the Stelia d'Italia newspapers.

A very pleasing feature of the scene was the very large number of indies in attendance, among them being some of the most charming Italian indies of the city. All of the company belonged to the select Italian circles of Washington.

The position of honor was accorded to Aminassador Fava who sat on the immediate right of President Ghiselli, of the Baron were President Whitman and Prof. Munro, and on the left Prof. Fava. Grouped around the left and right of the head of the table were Mr. V. Ferrara and V. Brocato, of the Crispi Society of Baltihead of the table were Mr. V. From and V. Brocato, of the Crispi Society of Baltimore, F. Lavarello, of the Cristoforo Colombo Society, of Baltimore, and President F. Fusco and Vice President Simone Scatia, of the Garibaldi Society. Just below these on the right and left of the long line of tables were the other officers of BARON FAVA CHEERED. The incidents of the banquet was opened with a short speech by President Ghiselli in which he referred to the presence of their distinguished guests and the pleasure he had of announcing that the Baron would address the society. Baron Fava was greeted with applause and cheers as he rose to steak. He began by referring to the spenk. He began by referring to the propriety of celebrating in the present man-ner and that of the day the grand historical event which was so dear to every Italian one of the most pleasing facts of the One of the most pleasing facts of the celebration to him, he said, was the union of the societies of Garibaidi and the Unione E Frateilanza. He regretted that his engagement in New York to-day would prevent his specialize the sea 3 verying with the company, and in conclusion gave them the sentiment of union and fraternal love. After the baron's speech the band, which was under the direction of Mr. Vincenti, flayed a medley of airs. When the musicians struck the first note of "Vive Garibaidi" there was a scene of enthusiasm and animation characteristic of Italian fervor. The men and the ladies responded enthusiastically to the sentiment of the athusiastically to the sentiment of the ic, and the former cheered and joined music, and the former cheered and joined in the refrain.

President Whitman was then introduced briefly, but pointedly, by Baron Fava. He spoke only about ten minutes, but his address was one eminently suited to the TENNYSON AS PROPHET. The great events of the world he said sometimes foreshadowed by the noets in their roles as prophets, and the prophecy must appropriate to what was now passing in the world was involved in the line of Tennyson, in which he spoke of the parliament of man and the federa-tion of the world. It foreshadowed and spoke of a time when nations would not eck to be great by destroying each other, sees to be great by destroying each other, but that mankind would be a higher senti-ment than man. At the conclusion of the address Baron Fava proposed the health of the speaker and also a toast to the press of Washington, which was drunk enthusiastically.

The rest of the evening was devoted to discussing the good things on the festive board.

Among those present were Mrs. and Miss Velati, Mrs. Bregazzi, Mr. and Mrs. F. Allen, Mrs. Angelo Ghiselli, Miss Angelina Marinelli, Salvatore Desio, F. P. Rallo and wife, Mrs. Lorenzo Simi, Mrs. G. Arancio, Mrs. A. Pavarini, J. Gatto, O. Vitaie, John P. Zenega, Mrs. A. A. Massino, A. Cassaleggi, Mrs. F. Sanfellippo, A. Pessagno, G. Chelini, C. P. Rallo, Mrs. G. Riani, A. De Vencenti, F. Rallo, Mrs. G. Riani, A. De Vencenti, F. S. Guili and wife, S. Scalia, Silvio Giovannetti, G. Deslo, V. Deslo, P. Buonaveres, P. Livingui, S. Zannelli, and wife, A. Giovannoni and wife, John Sanfellipo, N. Giovannoni and wife, C. Laurenezzi, B. Milano, F. Entragini and wife, E. Ferrari, P. San Angelo, Samuel Giovannetti, A. Regina, S. Papania and wife, Mrs. L. Zerega, G. Verdi, F. Puglesi and wife, A. Cefrerata, S. Cauattela, A. Guerieri, P. Caruso and wife, P. Guiliani, L. Mencheni and wife, A. Giovannoni and wife, Augelo Giovannoni, E. Primetti, I. Geraci, de Gerolomo, S. Sanfeilipo, Miss Grace Augelo Giavannoni, E. Prinetti, I. Geraci, de Gerolomo, S. Sanfeilipo, Miss Grace Sanfeilipo, Mrs. Melanie Coini, I. Gersei, A. La Caust, G. Spitmelli, Emilio Pampaloni, Miss Adee, Minetti, Mrs. Halfpap, M. La Cava, Miss V. Esymonde, A. Demma, A. Battaglia, A. Lamanne, F. Garofalo, F. Lavarelio, P. Radice D. Carollo, After the banquet Mrs. F. Allensang two songs, one in Italian in charming style and voice.

A letter of regret was received from Commissioner Ross.

The committee in charge was Frank Philips, chairman: F. Golli, M. Laurenzi, G. brange and M. Gazelle. PARADE IN THE MORNING.

The parade, which started from the cor per of Ninth street and Pennsylvania av enue at 9 o'clock yesterday, was headed by the National Guard band and was com by the National Guard band and was com-posed of all the local Italian organiza-tions. There were about two hundred men in line and both the American and Italian colors were noticeable.

The line of march was from the cor-ner of Pennsylvania avenue and Ninth street, to the Peace monument, thence north to Indiana avenue, west via Indiana and Louisiana avenues to Fifth street, north to F, west to Fifteenth street, north to Pennsylvania avenue, thence to the Italian Pennsylvania avenue, thence to the Italian embassy on I street, between Fifteenth and dixteenth streets. At the embassy the members of the various

Just think.

For the same money as it cost we can make it very attractive-s carefully selected paper can change the appearance of a room iltogether-we keep skilled men for that purpose, who know from

Horace J. LONG & Co.,

524 Thirteeuth St N. W.

Most all you mothers'll be out school-shopping to-day-and we want to remind you to come and see our new Children's Department.

It's twice as big as before since we remodeled the building—and we've got Children's Hats— Furnishings—and the "Mother's Friend" Shirt Waists now, too.

The more you know about Children's Clothing the quicker we'll sell you.

ond floor.

Take elevator to sec-

Eiseman Bros Cor. 7th and E Sts. H.W.

No Branch Store in Washington.

organizations stopped to pay their respects to Ambassador Fava, who received them most graciously and invited them into his residence.

Here the secretary of the local committee,
F. Gulli, made a patriotic local speech, in which he took occasion to centrast the condition of unified Italy to that which existed previously.
The address was a most impassioned one, and Baron Fava took occasion to respond to it in his most happy vein.

Joseph Verdi delivered an oration, thank ing the Ambaesador for his kindness and hearty welcome, after which the procession was reformed and marched back to head-mariers, at the corner of Ninth street and

One of the most pleasing features of today's entertainment was a luncheon given by Earon Fava to those who participated in the parade, at his residence, No. 1537 I street.

The Italian ambassador raised his glass at the conclusion of the report and drank the health of the President of the United States, while the band, which was stanoned in the nall, played the nationallymn, "America."
The Washington colony sent through the imbassador a message to the King of Italy, expressing their pleasure and satisfaction of the unification of their country.

MAKING PLANS FOR A YEAR

Annual Conference of the P. E. Workers Among Colored People.

Will Be Held at St. Luke's and St. Mary's Churches-Bishops Paret and Coleman Will Take Part.

The eleventh annual conference of workers colored people meets in St. Mary's and St. Luke's Churches, this city, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, September 24, 25, 26, and 27, 1895. It will be a gathering of more than usual importance, both on account of the nature of its work and the character of the men who will take part in it.

Tuesday, September 24-St. Mary's Church -8 p. m., evening prayer and sermon; preacher, Rev. Richard Bright, rector St. Stephen's Church, Savannah, Ga., alter-nate, Rev. O. W. Waller, rector St. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

Church, Philadeiphia, Pa.
Wednesday, September 25-8t. Mary's Church-7 a.m., Boly Communion; 10 a.m.,
Holy Communion and address by Rt. Rev.
William Paret, D. D., LL. D., bishop of Maryland; 12 m., noonday prayer for missions; 1 p. m., recess for lunch; 2:36 on pressemble, missellance is business. p. in., reassemble; miscellaneous business: 8 p. m., evening prayer, discussion, "What shall we ask of the general convention." Writers-Revs. M. F. Duby, J. H. M; Pollard, Joseph F. Mitchell, and Alfred U. Lashier.

Speakers—Revs. C. M. C. Mason, C. N. Field, S. S. J. E., J. A. Brown, and a layman to be supplied.

Thursday, September 26—St. Luke's Church: 7 a. m., holy communion; 9:30 a. m., morning prayer, reports of committees and miscellaneous bushess; 12 m., noonday prayer for missions; 1 p. m., recess for lunch; 2:30 p. m., reassemble

Albert Williams, Omaha, Neb.

Go to Atlanta via Norfolk.

At 6:58 Wednesday evening President Cleveland pressed the golden button that started the ponderous machinery. From this time on crowds of enger pleasure-seekers and sightseers will make Atlanta their objective point. Of all the routes to the Exposition City there's none more delightful, nor one more retreshing and enjoyable than the ride to Norfolk on the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company's elegant steamers, Norfolk, Washington or Newport News. It breaks the monotony of the dull, hot, dusty railroad travei, besides gives exquisite views of Maryland and Virginia, Fortress Mouroe, Old Point Comfort, Hampton Roads, Norfolk, etc. Ideal accommodations; superb cafe on the boats. Commections are made at Norfolk with all polits North, West, South and Southwest, by all railroads and sieamships. Tickets, maps, etc., at 518, 619, 1421 Pemsylvania avenue, and Fifteenth and New York avenue. Col. John Callahan, at company's wharf, will cheerfully furnish any other information desired.

SHE PREFERS THE JAIL HOLT CONTEST IS BEGUN

Husband No. 1.

BUT NO. 2 IS HER OWN CHOICE BEFORE JUDGE BRADLEY

J. V. Goodman Was Selected by Her Mother and They Married in August Last-George W. Crosby Gave Her His Name This Month-Pleads Guilty of Bigamy.

A charming young lady with two respectable and well-to-do husbands is somewhat of a ratily nowadays, even in the police court, but such a one plead guilty to a charge of bigamy before judge Kimball yesterday morning. She was formerly Maud Lilly, of Canden, N. J., who, on August 2, last, married John V. Goodman in that city, and on the 18th inst, married George W. Crosby, of this city. The first gendeman was her mother's choice, and the second one her own.

er own.

For over a year previous to either of her For over a year previous to either of her marriages Miss Lifty was engaged to Crosby, who formerly lived in Pottaville, N. J. She met Gecoman in Camden, however, and upon being pressed by her mother she finally coincensed to marry him, and did to, without letting her former tiance know anything about it.

She grew tired of Goodman in about a mount, however, and wrote here to Crosby, eaying that she would like to come to Washington and get married to him.

STARTED FOR HUSBAND NO. 2.

Crosby immediately told her to come, and, according to her first husband's statement, she gathered together some of hismoney and Jewelry, and packed her grip and took the train for Washington.

As soon as he discovered that wife and jewelry, and packed her grip and took the train for Washington.

As soon as he discovered that wife and valuables had gone together, Goodman purchased a rainoud tieset and started in pursuit. He reached here Thursday, and after ascertaining that the two had been seen together, called upon inspector Hollinberger and reported the facts in the case and asked for help.

The inspector informed Goodman that the District law does not recognize larceny between man and wife, but told him that he magist have the two arrested and prosecuted under the Edmunds law if they were not married. If they were, of course only the woman could be prosecuted.

course only the woman could be prosecuted.

Mr. Goodman ascertained the address of the Crostys, just outside the city, and called upon the father of George W, and was informed by him that the two had been married. The ceremony was performed at Wesley Chapel on the 18th of this month by Rev. Charles W. Besidwin. The family of young Crosby were very much surprised to Ind that the woman was already married, and one of the young man's brothers accompanied Goodman to the city yesterday morning and took him to the house at which the two were living.

GOODMAN'S PRIOR CLAIM.

Crosby was as much surprised as the Crosby was as much surprised as the rest of his family to learn that someone rest of his family to learn that someone else had a prior claim on his supposed wife, and he and the much married young lady readily agreed to accompany Goodman to police fleadquarters. From there the party went to the police court, where the young woman said she was guilty of the charge of bigamy, and was held to awan the action of the grand jury in $500 bonds.

Crossy stated that upon receipt of Manol's retter helwent to Philandelphia and met her there and brought her to this city. He had been writing to her for the past year under an assuraded name, as her mother objected to him, and knew nothing whatever of her marriage to Goodman. Crosby is a steamfilter and Goodman is a stimbulier. Both are industrious and steady young men.

So far the young woman has prearled.

belider. Both are industrious and secany young men.

So far the young woman has regarded the matter very lightly. She does not seem to appreciate the fact that she has committed a serious offense, and says she sees nothing wrong in pleusing her mother first and than herself. She stated, however, that she would rather go to land than back to Goodman.

HAS A FORTUNE IN PENNIES.

Dr. Collins Refused $6,000 for One Dollar and Twenty-nine Cents.

The Numismatists concluded the busi-ess of their convention here yesterday norning. Several papers on interesting subjects, which have not been read, will be published in the official magazine of the association. It is expected that most of the visiting lelegates will return to their homes this

Quite a number of the delegates visited Mount Vernon yesterday afternoon, and those who will not leave the city this morning will probably make their pli-grinuage to the tomb of Washington to-day. One of the most interesting features been the exhibition of rare and costly coins been the exhibition of rare and costly coins at the studio of Dr. B. H. Collins, on G street northwest. This exhibit was visited by a large number of people last night.

One of the finest cases in the exhibit is that of Dr. Collins. He has one display of cent pieces, numbering 129, for which $6,000 has been refused. It is not the age of these coins that counts most, but their perfection. There are many coins of given date, but it is only those which have not been in circulation long which are at all well preserved.

Lucky pennies or presents to children.

which have been carefully preserved, or those which have escaped from the wear and tear of circulation are the most highly prized One of the numismatista gave Dr Collins leat evening a solitaire diamond ring for a single penny

Among the gold coiss on exhibition are a sovereign of the time of Queen Elizabeth, beautifully preserved, and a coin of the age of Ferdinand and Isabelia The latter is also in a wonderful state of preserva-tion. It is a "fifty excellentes," the value in our own money being $100, but the sentimental value runs up into the

The exhibitors will remove their cases as afternoon. There will be no meeting

THE STUDY of the action of medicines, or vegetable compounds, upon the stomach, and tests neograday prayer for missions; 1 p. m., recess for lunch; 2:30 p. m., reassemble the work among the colored people?"

writer, Rev. James G. Bryant; speakers, Rev. E. N. Hallings and Hon R. H. Gleaves; 4 p. m., business; 8 p. m., evening prayer, paper and discussion. "The development of self-supporting parishes," Richard Birnie; speakers, Rev. W. V. Tunewriters, Rev. George F. Miller and Mr. Tunnell and a layman to be supplied.
Friday, September 27, 8t Mary's Church—7 a. m., holy communion; 10 a. m., holy communion and sermon; preacher, the Right Rev. Leighton Coleman, D. D., bishop of Delaware; alternate, Rev. George F. Bragg, Ir., Maryjand; organization, miscellaneous business; 12 m., noonday prayers for missions; 1 p. m., recess for lunch; 2:30 p. m., reading of papers and discussion: 1, "Harmony among church workers," Miss Mamie Payne, New York; 2, "Woman's work in the church," Miss 8. P. Pembleton, Philadelphia; 3, "Rule of service," Mrs. Alexander, New York; 8 p. m., missionary meeting and closing service.

Executive committee—Rev. Henry L. Phillips, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. Oscar L. Mitchell, Washington, D. C.; Rev. John Albert Williams, Omaha, Neb.

Bible compounds, upon the stomach, and tests in many hundreds of cases, long ago convinced Doctor R. V. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the livalids' Hotel and Surgician to the livalids' Hotel and Surgician to the livalids' Hotel and Surgician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgician to the Invalids of cases, long ago convinced Doctor R. V. V. Tune Invalidation, M. V., that all cases of Indi

INDIGESTION; SEVERE PAIN IN STOMACH. THOMAS FLETCHER, of Clifton Station, Fair-fax Co., Va., writes:

"I suffered the terrible tortures for ten years with what your Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser describes, as 'Gastralgia', I pain in stomach, I employed our home-doctor -- took '% dozen bottles of sarsaparilla with no bene-batt dozen bottles of celery compound with-925 Penn. Ave.

Miss Maud Lilly Does Not Love u ke Devlin Files the Scorched Alleged Will for Probate.

Messrs. Darlington and Lee Represent the Contestants-Text of the Accompanying Petition for Letters Testamentary-Heirs Must Answer by October 18 or Sustain Defeat.

The Holt will contest was begun yesterday in Judge Bradley's court by the filing of he famous singed will for probate.

Ever since the scorched and dingy paper

ande its appearance in the office of the egister of wills on August 26, the event that took place yesterday has been looked forward to almost daily.

There was but one cause for delay—that was the retention of attorneys by the ex-ecutor under the will, Mr. Luke Devlin. Almost immediately after the alleged will made its unceremonious and myste-rious debut before the register, Mr. Devlin consulted with Messrs. J. J. Darlington and Blair Lee to represent him in the legal fight that was sure to follow.

That they decided to take up the cause and defend the alleged will is shown by the cause and defend the alleged will is shown by their appearance before Judge Bradley yesterday to present the executor's peti-tion for probate and letters testamentary. Upon the presentation of the paper for probate, Judge Bradley passed an order making October 18 the date upon which the answer of those opposed to the will is re-turnable. PROTEST EXPECTED.

If the heirs at law do not file a protest by that date and then show reasonable cause why it should not be admitted, the probate of the will will follow as a matter of course.; Accompanying the will was the following: "The petition of Luke Devlin, respectfully epresents:

"1 That he is a citizen of the United

"1 That he is a citizen of the United States, and a resident of Monigomer yeounty, in the State of Maryland.
"2 That Joseph Holt, inte a citizen of the United States, and a resident of the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, departed this life in said city and District on or about the first day of August, A. D., 1894.
"3 That, besides a considerable amount of real extens attented in said city and of real estate, situated in said city and District, said testator died, possessed of the following goods, chattels and personal estate, to wit:

"Seventy thousand dollars, par value, in registered bonds of the District of Colum-hia, the estimated value of which is about $79,000; $7,000 in bonds of the city of Louisville, Kentucky; sixteen bonds of the Belt Line Rallroad, of the District of Co-lumbia, of the par value of $500 each, and of the estimated value of $400 each; 220 shares of stock of the National Bank of Commerce of New York, of the par value of $100 each, and of the estimated value of $175

"Two notes aggregating the sum of $11,000, and about $12,000 in cash, be-sides household furniture, books, brica-brac, paintings, silver and table ware, and a horse and vehicle, which said last enumerated goods and chattels are of the esti-mated value of about $3,500.

ENUMERATION OF THE HEIRS.

4. That said Joseph Holt left a last will and testament bearing the date seventh day of February, 1873, which is herewith presemed for probate, and that said decedent left him surviving, as his only heirs at law and next of kin, the following persons: and next of kin, the following persons:
"Washington D. Holt, a nephew, and resident of Kentucky; John W. Holt, a nephew, and resident of Yazoo city, Miss.; Lockie Holt, Robert Holt, Thomas Holt, and James Holt, nephews, and Sarat Holt, niece, who are non-residents of the District of Columbia, and whose places of residences are to your petitioner unknown; William G. Sterrett, a nephew, and a resident of the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, and Margaret Bow District of Columbia, and Margaret Bow mer, a niere, who is a resident of Clover-port, Ky.; Joseph Holt, a great nephew, who resides at Sherman, Tex.

"5. That, heretofore, to wit: On the 28th day of August, 1894, upon the petition of Washington D. Holt, John W. Holt, and William G. Sterrett, alleging, among other thoses, that and tostator died interand William G. Sterrett, alleging, among other things, that said testator died intestate, letters of administration were granted to the National Safe Deposit, Savings and Trust Company, doing business in the Pistrict of Columbia, in whose custody your petitioner is informed and believes, and therefore avers, the personal estate of the said testator now is

Wherefore your petitioner prays as

"Wherefore your petitioner prays as follows:

"I That the said will be admitted to probate and record and letters testamentary granted unto him accordingly.

"2. That the order appointing the National Safe Deposit, Savings and Trust Company, administrator of said decedent, be declared void and for naught held.

"3. And that your petitioner may have such other and further relief as the nature of his case may require. of his case may require.
"LUKE DEVLIN."

JOSEPH C. LAY ARRESTED.

Obtained Money From Allison Nation Obtained Money From Alisson Nation on a Bogus Check.

Joseph C. Lay, a prominently connected and well-known young man of this city was arrested last night by Detectives Weedon and Horne, on a warrant charging him with obtaining money outer false pretenses. Allison Nation is the complainant, and the amount involved is 25.

25.

Lay, who was acquainted with Mr. Nailor, obtained the money by means of a borus cheek, which he represented to be good, and got him to cash. The cheek was thrown out at the bank, however, and when it was returned to Mr. Nailor he swore out a warrant for the arrest of Lay.

The young man was locked up last night at the Sixth precioct station-house, and will be given a preliminary hearing in the police court to-day before Judge Kimball.

Sir Julian Pauncefote Returned. New York, Sept. 20.—Sir Juffan Faurcefote, British ambassador to Washington, who has been home on a three months leave of absence, returned to-day on the steamship Campania to his duties at the National Capital. Sir Julian is in excellent health
He went to the Brunswick hotel to-night, and to-morrow will go to Newport.

The "Symphony"

The new mechanical organ that positively will play any tune.

No knowledge of music is required by the player, for this wonderful instrument plays itself. Repertoire end-see the "Symphony" when calling. Prices range from $175 up.

Visitors are invited to

Good Flannel

Suits, $1.19.

(3 to 9 years.)

We are showing a very fine line of KNEE PANTS with patent riveted button and patented waist lands from 59c up. All wool.

Reefer Suits.

Suits!

'Twill Pay All Mothers

To Visit Us Before School Opening.

Good All-wool Knee Pants, sizes 4 to 15, 50c.

Good School Satchels FREE to boys whose suits are purchased here.

M. KAUFMAN. 8th and I Sts. S. E.

These suits-for boys from 4 to 8 years - are the delight of both parents and children. They are elegantly made and finished. Finely lined-and collars are beautifully embroidered. x x x x x x x x x x x wearing School Suits, $2.98.

Our $2.49

School Suit.

Reefer and Double-breasted-very hand-some suits-variety of colors-beautifully made and finished. There are no stronger Suits than these made.

Dress and

These are Suits that are built for the boy that delights in tearing his clothes-for he will find it difficult to either tear these or wear them out.

TWO HANDSOME HOUSES FOR SALE CHEAP.

Two of the handsomest houses in the northwest are just nearing completion, and can be sold on the most liberal terms; pressed brick and Hummelstown brownstone trimmings, tiled roofs, thoroughly water-tight; cemented cellar; beautiful, well-lighted stairways and handsome carved screens; woodwork specially designed and tinted in artistic colors; tiled vestibules and bathrooms; electric bells and gas lighting; speaking tubes.
MANTELS AND GAS FIXTURES CAN BE SELECTED BY PURCHASER.

Houses to be heated by hot water system, guaranteed to give 70 degrees of heat in zero weather. These houses were built by one of our best architects, and are located in the finest part of the northwest, within a stone's throw of New Hampshire ave. Price, $8,500 each, if sold at

T. O. ANDERSON & CO.,

@$$$

Real Estate and Business Exchange,

907 G St. N. W.

SPECIAL NOTICE! Great Consignment of $5,000

CHILDREN'S SUITS

TENNILLE, 709 7th St. N.

which will be sold regardless of price. It will pay you to examine this immense stock of suits. From 90c up. Knee Pants for 18c and upward. Beats the world-$3.50 for a GOOD BUSINES

MAN'S SUIT. Sale begins at 9:30-not before.

TENNILLE,

BWWWXWWWWWW

709 Seventh Street N. W., near & St.